Looking for talent

Dear Editor,

We are looking for talent! If you are a comic, poet, musician, or artist of any media, send a demo tape to Lavender Underground - Dykes On Mykes: Suite 1800-151, 7777 Sunrise Blvd, Citrus Heights, CA 95610. Or call 725-5512. We are scouting the artistic genius of this community for an upcoming concert and art show.

Sincerely,
Kelly Conway

MGW: No on Prop. 174

Dear Editor,

This letter is to ask for voters to oppose Proposition 174 (the voucher initiative) on this November's ballot. If Prop. 174 passes, it will have repercussions for the entire gay and lesbian community in this state.

Prop. 174 would give every parent in the state a voucher to be used to provide education for their children. This initiative would be written into the Constitution. The only way to make any changes would be a) with 3/4 of the legislature (You know how difficult it is to get even 2/3 to pass the budget) or, b) 50 percent affirmative vote from a majority of ALL electors — unfortunately 50 percent of all electors don't even go to the polls, much less vote all in one direction.

There are two major reasons why this would be bad for the gay and lesbian community. The initiative reads that no school that discriminates on the basis or race, ethnicity, color, or national origin may redeem a voucher. Notice what is left out? Sexual orientation. This means that a voucher school could discriminate against a teacher because s/he were gay/lesbian. This means that a voucher school could discriminate against a parent who happens to be gay/lesbian. This means that a voucher school could discriminate against a student who happens to be gay/lesbian — or may have gay/lesbian "tendencies."

Secondly, it would allow use of our tax dollars to teach hatred and fear of gays and lesbians. Fundamentalist Christian churches will form their own schools. Many of these church related schools will be using our tax dollars to help indoctrinate children about the negative views about gays and lesbians.

Sincerely,
Gary Miller, Trustee

SAGA sports gearing up!

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the Sacramento Arts and Games Association (SAGA) Women's Softball Team, I would like to thank you for your donation of a MGW subscription, T-shirt, Print of the Capitol, and a weekend at the Langtry for our raffle that was held at our booth at the Rainbow festival over Labor Day Weekend.

With your contribution and others, we were able to raise over $600 from the raffle alone. Needless to say we are very happy with our first fundraising efforts, and hope that our future endeavors are as sucessful.

Thanks again for supporting SAGA and Women's Softball!

Yours in spirit,
Margaret Schubert,
Coordinator
SAGA Women's Softball

Twin Spirit still kicking

Dear Editor,

This letter is to correct misinformation that has been printed in The Latest Issue.

Twin Spirit Veterans Association is alive and well! The fact that we are no longer affiliated with River City MCC is true. However, we are a State Registered Unincorporated Non-profit Association and do have a federal tax identification number. We are also in the process of filing all necessary documents and forms to obtain our federal tax exempt status.

Our organization is still functioning at 100%. Meetings are being held, business is being conducted and newsletters are being sent out to members. We will, however, now be sending out fewer complimentary newsletters due to rising costs.

We invite anyone who seeks information about Twin Spirit Veterans Association (T.S.V.A.) to leave a message on our voice mail, 916-863-3020 ext. 6000, or write: Twin Spirit Veterans Association, Box 162453, 95816-2453.

We understand that bad information was given to The Latest Issue, but we do wish they would have contacted one of the legitimate officers of T.S.V.A. before printing the story.

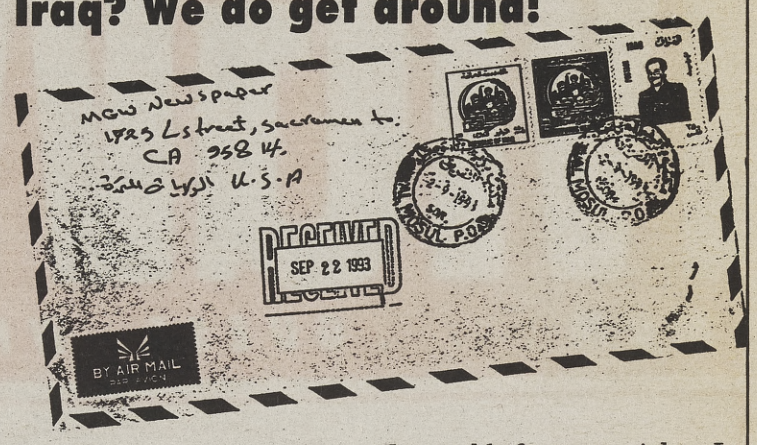
First Officer, T.S.V.A

Iraq? We do get around!



Dear Sir,

I hope that all of you are well. Your activities are charming, that what I had seen of them with my friend's magazines. This clearly pushes me to be one of your close friend as far as possible, so, let me open the door which leads me to your magic world. The world of strange sights. I am sure that you will send for me a copy of your magazine in order to fall under the charm of your activities.

Best wishes from my heart.

Goodbye,

Time to play!

Art Katz, DDS, hangs up drills and retires

By Dorothea Rynearson
MGW/Staff

Yesterday, the doors to Art Katz, DDS, business closed for the last time. Yes, at 44, Art seems young to retire. But while retiring early might just be a dream for most of us, it has become a reality for Art.

At 24, he had already graduated from dental school and was serving in the United States Air Force. When the service transferred him to Mather AFB in 1974 from Maryland, Art took a look around and decided to call Sacramento home. While at Mather, Art was out as gay man. Two years later, while still on active duty, he began moonlighting in his off hours, building the solo dentistry practice he always dreamed of owning. That early start and fierce determination helped build the practice that would be his bread and butter for the next seventeen years..

Art's practice was marketed almost exclusively to the gay community and he says tht he has always believed in reaching out to the community.

"I've advertised in MGW since the first issue in 1978. The paper has been great in uniting the community," says Art. His practice served about 900 patients and 85% were gay/lesbian.

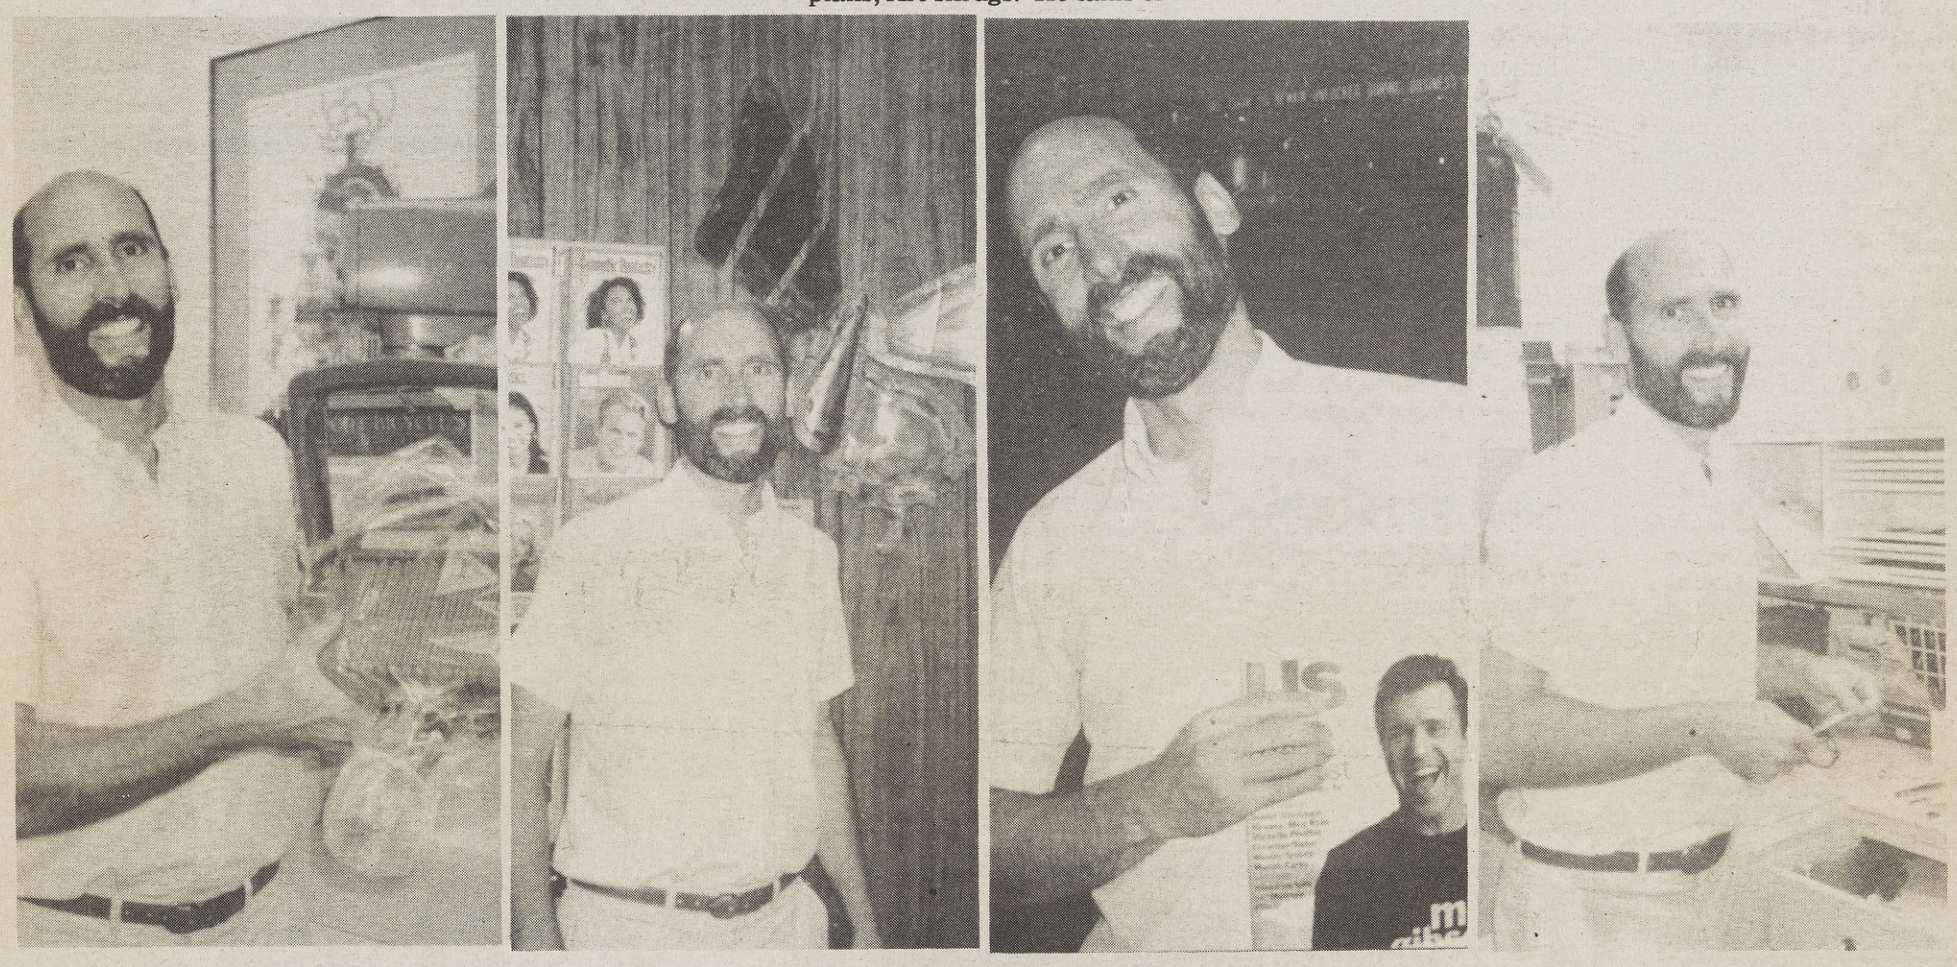
That same dedication and determination is evident in Art's personal life. As artist, he approaches everything with zeal: his copper sculptures, his art collection, even the home he built. He's a strong advocate of the community, supporting and a member of The Sacramento Men's Chorus and in 1983 was the President of Capitol City Squares and still currently a member in Prime 8's, a gay/lesbian square dancing group. In 1981 he founded the Sacramento Gay/Lesbian Mental Health Professionals, a group of doctors, nurses and therapists. The group was formed so they could share information and educate one another on issues in the gay community.

When asked about his plans, Art shrugs. He talks of trips to exotic locations with his partner, Jeff Greer, and of extended visits with his relatives in Florida. Maybe a new hobby and definitely lots of projects around his home and gardens, including taking care of his chickens, pheasants, pigeons, ducks, geese and two ponds filled with koi and other fish.. Nothing definite - he's just planning to relax with his friends and enjoy himself. To do what feels right at the moment.

"I'm sure there are people who think that 44 is too young to retire." He smiles, "I'm healthy. I love to travel. I can afford to retire now. I have things that I want to pursue and I'm young enough, healthy and financially secure enough to do them. And," Art laughs, "I'm going to do just that."

And just how do you get to retire at such an early age? According to Art, there is no secret formula--just the usual combination of doing something you love, doing it well, and working hard at it. That's exactly what he's done these past seventeen years at 1820 Professional Drive and for him, it's paid off.

And so Art, a man always a step ahead of the pack, beat the majority into retirement as well. As for the rest of us, all we can offer is our best wishes and dream of doing the same one day.▼



oh no.

Lots of bad things can happen to your house, car, apartment, condo, boat, mobile home or business. But when you're in my care, I'll see that you're protected, and we'll get you smiling again fast. Call me.

HIV/AIDS UPDATE

By Sonya Cox
AIDS/HIV Editor

Moving September...

September brought with it vivid images of the magnitude and emotion of the AIDS epidemic. Early in the month — through the generosity of HBO, Sacramento Cable, and the California Cable Association — several hundred Sacramentans previewed "And the Band Played On," a chronicle of the early days of the epidemic based on the book by Randy Shilts, shown as a fundraiser for CARES. The special showing at the Crest Theatre brought in over $25,000, enough to provide services to scores of CARES clients. The last weekend of the month brought us the display of the NAMES Project's AIDS Memorial Quilt at the Community Center. This huge event was made possible through individual donations from our community, from the Men's Chorus' Hidden Legacies concert, from corporate sponsors and local business owners, and through the hard work of Sacramento's Quilt Committee. The support of local media was incredible and brought in thousands of area residents to share firsthand the impact of this epidemic, including nearly 2000 youths from local schools. Thank-you to the Sacramento educators who walked through the display with the students to answer their individual questions as well as the scores of volunteers throughout the community whose support made this event a reality. Hopefully, this display will play a part in saving the lives of those who saw it, and lead to an end of the misunderstanding and bigotry associated with this devastating disease. Dozens of moving quilt panels submitted by Sacramentans in memory of friends and loved ones lost — as well as several hand-carried by families who flew in from other states because they wanted to submit their panels at the Sacramento display — will now be sewn into the 23,000-panel Quilt. September will not be soon forgotten by those who were able to experience these events.

Acupuncture, herbs available...

Clients of the AIDS Foundation are now eligible to receive free acupuncture and Chinese herbs if they meet certain requirements (have between 200 and 500 T-cells, at least two symptoms of HIV disease such as night sweats, diarrhea, fatigue, etc.). Roseville acupuncturist Greg Brown has been approved for Ryan White funding to provide acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine services throughout the area. Contact your case manager at SAF if you'd like to have them contact Greg to verify your diagnosis. If you're not a client, call 448-2437 to see if you're eligible to become one. You may also call Greg directly at 782-6683 if you have questions. Remember to let your physician know of any new therapy or herbs you may take.

Food program...

Budget cuts have nearly ended the AIDS Foundation's ability to provide monthly food boxes at no cost to those on a limited budget. Food boxes are now being provided nearly exclusively only to those who purchase them (at the cost of $14, due by the end of the first week of every month). Limited funds can still provide food to those who cannot afford this amount, so please keep your case manager informed of your financial situation.

With gratitude and best wishes...

* Sacramento AIDS specialist Dr. Neil Flynn has begun a one-year sabbatical, returning to Graduate School at UC-Berkeley's School of Public Health to pursue a Master's Degree in epidemiology. The new knowledge, he says, will help him bring more AIDS research to our community. CARES clients will still see him at the Monday night clinic.

* Local dentist Art Katz has retired from his practice. He too has treated hundreds of members of the Sacramento community in his usual caring and compassionate manner.

Fundraisers...

* Macy's downtown store will host a fundraiser for the AIDS Foundation Saturday and Sunday, October 2 and 3. Purchase a discount ticket from volunteers at SAF tables outside the store before shopping, and get an additional 10 percent off everything you purchase, including items already on sale. All proceeds go to the Foundation. Spread the word and shop 'til you drop. Thanks, Macy's!

* The Sacramento Leather Association is donating proceeds from their recent Beer Bust at the Wreck Room to the Foundation's Hand-to-Hand Project. Thank you!

Condom news...

The British company that sells Ramses and Sheik latex (rubber) condoms will introduce a new polyurethane condom in the U.S. next year. Polyurethane is thinner than latex, can be used with oil-based lubricants, and is said to allow for greater sensitivity and prevent the transmission of HIV. The new condoms are expected to be a bit more expensive than latex.▼

Sacramento Gay & Lesbian Film Festival

Film guide

Alfalfa*, Richard Kwietniowski, Great Britain, 1987, 9 mins.

The Queen's English: an alternative alphabet of gay slang and some misappropriated definitions. C is for Clone, H is for Heaven, I is for Invert and R is for Rim.

Le Corps Image* Stephen Cummins, Australia, 1986, 12 mins.

Stimulation for the senses, Le Corps Image moves like a reflection in a pool of water that has just had a pebble thrown in. Men merge with women and women merge with men in a splended orgy of images projected onto bodies. What you see depends on how the living projection screens move.

Alfalfa*, a short film by Richard Kwietniowski, produced in Great Britain

Because the Dawn* Amy Goldstein, 1988 40 mins, color.

A modern day vampire musical comedy, this contemporary tale of female desire is an upbeat tale of obsession and transformation told in the style of noir with a swing beat.

Because the Dawn*, blood-sucking lesbian vampire tale by Amy Goldstein.

A Comedy in Six Unnatural Acts* Jan Oxenberg, USA, 1975, 26min, B&W

A relentless parody of lesbian stereotypes played out in a series of episodes as Hollywood might see them.

Disco Years* Robert Lee King, USA 1992, 30 mins, color.

An accomplished coming out short story set against the beat of the 70's, when safe sex meant you didn't get found out.

Dreams of Passion* Aarin Burch, USA, 1989, 5 mins, color.

A dancer's daydream and desire find fullfillment in the eloquent Dreams of Passion.

Elevation* Stephen Cummins, Australia, 1989, 11 mins.

Two handsome men meet and exchange social signals in an endlessly interrupted elevator ride.

Loverville, Loverville 2: The Honeymoon* Bohdan Zachary, USA, 1992, 8 mins, color.

Two short comedies (with Bay Area comedian Scott Capurro) that chronicle the saccharin relationships of a very dextrose duo.

A Moffie Called Simon* John Greyson, Canada, 1987, 15 mins, B&W.

Simon Nkodi is a black gay activst and South African student leader. This compact, instructive political dramatization (from the director of Urinal) examines the events leading up to his jail term and tackles the connections between the gay and anti-apartheid movements.

976* David Weisman, USA, 1987, 3 mins.

A spoof on the familiar 976 phone sex ads that offers a creative alternatiave.

RSVP* Laurie Lynd, Canada, 1991, 23 mins.

RSVP is an almost wordless tour-de-force about the impact of one man's death on those who loved him. There is almost no dialogue, but rather a central piece of music - "La Spectre de la Rose", superbly performed by Jessye Norman. The music from Berlioz' Les Nuit d'Ete forms a link between various family members and friends listening to it and it is through their images, reactions and memories that we learn that Andrew has died of AIDS.

Laurie Lynd is the director of this year's favorite fantasy The Fairy Who Didn't Want to be a Fairy Anymore.

Spin Cycle* Aarin Burch, USA, 1991, 5 mins, color.

In the autobiograpohical Spin Cycle, a young black lesbian filmmaker ruminates about her craft and her relationships

Elevation*, an interrupted elevator ride from Australia.

Storme: The Lady of the Jewel Box* Michele Parkerson, 1987, 21 mins, color.

An integral slice of gay and black history, this is a portrait of Storme deLarverie, former MC and male impersonator with the legendary Jewel Box Revue—America's first integrated female impersonation show.

Tiny and Ruby: Hell-Divin' Women* Greta Schiller and Andrea Weiss, USA, 1988, 30 mins.

Narrated by poet Cheryl Clarke this film zooms in on two of the International Sweethearts of Rhythm, a 16-piece, interracial all-woman jazz band of the '40s. A piece of history lives in drummer Ruby Lucas and her long-time lover legendary jazz trumpeter Tiny Davis ("I Loved Them gals!")

True Blue* Maureen Brownsey, USA, 7 mins, color.

Gala to mark opening of Film Festival

Delta Lambda Phi Fraternity and the Gay & Lesbian Alliance of Sacramento present the 2nd Annual Sacramento Gay & Lesbian Film Festival, for two days this year, Friday October 8 and Saturday October 9 at The Crest Theatre.

The Opening Night Gala Film Screening and reception will be held on Friday October 8. The films begin at 7:30pm at The Crest Theatre, 1013 K Street, with the reception at 10pm at A Shot of Class, at 11th and K Streets.

Special guests Maureen Brownsey, director of True Blue, and Bohdan Zachary, director of Loverville I & II (all shown opening night) will attend the Opening Night Gala Screening and Reception, and will be available for a question and answer period at the reception.

Friday night's film selections are aimed at providing an evening of light entertainment and fun. The two shorts, Loverville and Loverville II: The Honeymoon, feature popular comedian Scott Capurro, who will also be at the opening night gala. Also featured are the popular coming out story of Disco Years and the Vampire musical Because the Dawn.

There will be two showings on Saturday October 9.

The 2pm matinee will be a repeat of Friday night's films.

The 7pm screening will be an entirely different program, anchored around Tiny and Ruby: Hell Divin' Women, a film about legendary jazz trumpeter Tiny Davis and her lover Ruby Lucas. This film won best documentary at the 1988 San Francisco International Lesbian and Gay Film Festival. Also featured will be Storm: The Lady of the Jewel Box, as well as a mixture of shorts.

All programs are approximately 2 hours in length. A ticket for both the Opening Night Gala Screening and the Reception is $25; this will include preferred seating at the screening. Prices for any of the three individual screenings is $6 general admission, and $4 for students and Friends of the Festival.

Tickets will be available at The Lambda Center, Lioness Books, Sports Leisure Travel on Folsom and recycled Records at 2nd & F in Davis.▼

LOCAL NEWS

Help keep the doors open

The Lambda Community Center has been helping the lesbian and gay community since 1986 through the AIDS Response Program, the Lambda Freedom Fair and many other programs. Unfortunately, funding cutbacks and increased expenses have hurt the Lambda Center.

Imagine the possibility of no Freedom Fair! There are several ways you can help. Call 442-0185 and ask for John or Joanna. Help us help everyone else.▼

Lambda Center creates endowment fund

The Lambda Community Center has established an Endowment Fund as a vehicle for planned giving to support the Center's long-term goals. The Fund is an essential part of estate planning for Sacramentans wanting to make a contributions toward a strong and lasting future of the lesbian, gay and bisexual community.

Planned giving, whether of cash, securities, real estate, personal property or life insurance, whether given directly, through a trust or by will, and whether received immediately or deferred, allows a donor the opportunity to provide an enduring gift of support to the center. Additionally, through thoughtful use, planned giving to the Endowment Fund may substantially reduce the tax burden of the donor, now and in the future.

The Endowment Fund will be directed by the Treasurer's Committee of the Board of Directors, with guidance from appropriate financial advisors to ensure that all gifts are managed in order to maximize the return to the center.

Info: Joanna Cassese, Executive Director, 442-0185.▼

Erotic Costume Ball planned

Big Art is hosting an Erotic Art Show. A preview of the work will be held Saturday, October 9 at 6pm at 1928 L Street. A reception will be held on October 30 at 6pm at the Eastern Star Temple, 2719 K Street. A donation of $3 will benefit C.A.R.E.S. The reception will be followed by an Erotic Costume Ball. Tickets: $15 in advance, $20 at the door. Info: 446-2740.▼
